

St. Hugh's Preparatory School

Location: Kingston, Jamaica

Type: Private, coeducational school

Using technology in a constructive way to facilitate engagement and nurture skills.

“

Literacy Planet offers good support for our Language Arts programme, in a fun and accessible way.

”

Sasha Wright
Principal
St. Hugh's Preparatory School

Why they chose LiteracyPlanet

St. Hugh's Preparatory School is a small, coeducational school in Jamaica catering for students from ages three to 12. This school has been in operation for over a century and has a rich history of academic excellence. St. Hugh's Preparatory School utilise a variety of online resources to promote the development of foundational skills, and found LiteracyPlanet to be the perfect fit to facilitate this.

How the school uses LiteracyPlanet

Students from Grades 1 to 6 have access to tablet computers in the classroom to facilitate engagement. Staff for all grade levels at St. Hugh's Preparatory School found LiteracyPlanet offers perfect support for their Language Arts programs and an engaging way to present curriculum-aligned content.

“ Students and parents have given very positive feedback.

”

Sasha Wright
Principal
St. Hugh's Preparatory School School

At home and in the classroom

Students have enjoyed the fun, gamified style of content offered by LiteracyPlanet and have found the exercises engaging and motivating. Parents have also been impressed by the implementation of LiteracyPlanet.

Positive student engagement

In addition to assigned tasks, students have been using LiteracyPlanet's spelling exercises independently. Students at St. Hugh's Preparatory School have been entering assigned spelling words each week and practising in their own time, which is playing a crucial role in developing spelling skills.

“ Teachers have found good passages with questions and activities that help students practise.

”

Sasha Wright
Principal
St. Hugh's Preparatory School

Useful teacher resource

Teachers have also found LiteracyPlanet to be an excellent way to facilitate the development of comprehension skills. Teachers have found the passages of text to be of high quality and the questions posed to students the perfect way to develop this key literacy strand.

Versatile learning options

St. Hugh's Preparatory School aims to use relevant technologies to facilitate student engagement. The teaching staff has found LiteracyPlanet to be a constructive way to develop and nurture crucial skills on the path to English literacy mastery.

“ With LiteracyPlanet our teachers continue to find new and engaging ways to deliver curriculum-aligned content to our students. ”

Sasha Wright
Principal
St. Hugh's Preparatory School

Empowering students

Teachers at St. Hugh's Preparatory School have been impressed by the content on offer and students have enjoyed the fun, gamified style of exercises offered by LiteracyPlanet.

Connect with us: www.literacyplanet.com | info@literacyplanet.com